The Family Hearth General Store is situated in an authentic 1870s building on the main street of Frankfort, Illinois established in 1859. The charming atmosphere of the town pervades the general store where you will feel you just stepped back in time but where you will find treasures to delight you today.

From Victorian reproductions to folk art prints and paper goods, from quilts to primitive candles, antique samplers to willow tree figurines, gourmet coffee to vintage jewelry, cards and wall art, The Family Hearth General Store offers inspirational one-of-a-kind gifts and decor honoring home, faith and family life. Come on down for a bottle of pop, or cup of coffee and sit a spell!
